National Hispana Leadership Institute Celebrates the Graduating Class of the Latinas Learning to Lead Program

Washington, D.C. -- The National Hispana Leadership Institute is proud to celebrate the graduation of their 20 outstanding fellows from the 2012, Latinas Learning to Lead class.

The graduation ceremony was held Thursday, June 21, 2012 at 6:30pm, at Catholic University of America in Washington, D.C. The keynote address was given by NHLI Advancing Latina Leaders in Nonprofit 2012 alumna, Cecilia Majors, who is the Associate Manager of the Congressional Hispanic Caucus Institute.

NHLI's annual Latinas Learning to Lead Program promotes and fosters the development of young college-age Latina leaders through training, mentoring opportunities, access to national networks and tools to create a community impact through their leadership projects. This year's fellows come from 15 states and represent a variety of fields of study.

"I was inspired by the passion and accomplishments of the 2012 LLL graduating class, as they represent the dynamic caliber of Latinas that will lead our country in the future." Said Cecilia Majors, "As an NHLI Alumna, I was especially proud to see NHLI's leadership development efforts continuing to transform young Latinas by helping realize their dreams and aspirations."

National Hispana Leadership Institute
